

Headlines

General Curia of the Society of Jesus

Social Justice and Ecology Secretariat

Dear << Test First Name >> << Test Last Name >>,

Greetings and best wishes!

Christmas is near! It's just a few days to go for us to celebrate the Incarnation of the Son of God! Sharing in the joy of this Season, we wish you a Happy Christmas celebration. May the joy of this season inspire new hope for a more just society and a better ecological system for our common home.

In sending you this Headlines in which we bring to you some news on: the international Human rights day with the cry for justice for Fr Stan Swamy, the celebration of the International Migrants Day by the Jesuits, how the covid-19 situation is being lived, it is our wish to make your Christmas celebrations be in the light of Fratelli Tutti. We are all brothers and Sisters. Let the coming of Christ reinforce our fraternity.

Once more, Happy Christmas from the SJES office!

Xavier Jeyaraj, S.J

SJES - Rome

NARRATIVE

My Interest in the Social Apostolate

Fala Valery, S.J

Growing up, living a true and genuine personal relationship has always been part and parcel of my experience in my family and with my friends. But, it wasn't until I joined the novitiate that I discovered that there is something extraordinarily special in not just Read more...

NEWS

SJES – Promotio Iustitiae - Healing Democracy in an Era of Authoritarianism and Populism

The SJES is glad to bring to you another issue of the Promotio Iustitiae. The present Promotio Iustitiae no. 130 brings together 20 well-reflected articles written by experts who have been working on the challenges of democracy from all the six Jesuit Conferences. The authors highlight, Read more...

Ireland - Destroying our ecosystem is sinful

Our lack of commitment to drastically reducing our carbon emissions is a structural sin that calls for a conversion in our society. That's what Dr Kevin Hargaden, Director of the Jesuit Centre for Faith and Justice told Pat Coyle of Irish Jesuit Communications in a recent interview. (December 2020). He was speaking to her as Read more...

Latin America - New migration dynamics of Central America and risks in protecting their human rights

The risks associated with displacement are greater when victims are young people: girls, boys and adolescents who stop attending the education system or do so in fear due to factors associated with violence and insecurity, such as gang threats. Below is an Read more...

Global - Recovering or Denying Human Rights?

Recover Better – Stand up for Human Rights is the theme chosen by the United Nations for Human Rights Day on 10 December this year. It relates to the pandemic COVID-19 and focusses on the need for building a better future ensuring the rights of all citizens. Unfortunately, we have witnessed the failure of our Read more...

INTERNATIONAL HUMAN RIGHTS DAY

Global – Joint Open Statement Calling for the immediate release of Fr. Stan Swamy, S.J

December 10 is the International Human rights day. On this occasion, the International Solidarity Group for Fr. Stan Swamy SJ, Read more...

Global – Jesuits intensify campaign for the immediate release of Fr. Stan Swamy, S.J on International Human Rights Day

December 10, the International Human Rights day, was one of its kind this year for most Jesuit institutions. A unanimous cry for justice and respect Read more...

NEWS COVID-19

Philippines - What the pandemic can teach us about collaboration and networking

“The attitude we need to develop is to move away from Jesuit triumphalism, thinking that with our resources, our ingenuity, and our capacities we can solve the problems of Read more...

Asia Pacific - Myanmar Jesuit Mission: Supporting women and girls in the pandemic

Myanmar is suffering from a resurgence of Covid-19 cases—much worse than the first wave—and now millions are locked down, unable to work or go to school. With the coming Read more...

INTERNATIONAL MIGRANTS DAY

Global – Challenges and Signs of Hope in the Forced Migration Apostolate

It is difficult not to accept the truth behind the phrase “we are all migrants.” Even if we have not lived it in the first person, it is not strange that Read more...

Latin America - Migrating to the extraordinary

The Jesuit Migration Network of Latin America and the Caribbean denounces that the crisis generated by the COVID-19 pandemic has intensified inequalities, and aggravates the Read more...

HAPPY CHRISTMAS

Copyright © 2021 Social Justice and Ecology Secretariat, All rights reserved.

You are receiving this email because you opted in via our website.

Our mailing address is:

Social Justice and Ecology Secretariat

Borgo S. Spirito, 4

Rome, Italy 00193

Italy

Add us to your address book

Want to change how you receive these emails?

You can update your preferences or unsubscribe from this list.